

Michael Jefferson Biography

Michael Jefferson, President, Cut One School One Youth Crime Intervention (Mississippi)

Michael Jefferson is the President, Founder and Vocational Director of Cut One School One Youth Crime Intervention, a non-profit dedicated to reducing crime and high school dropout rates by introducing students to the barbering profession through after-school programs. By combining hands-on training with mentorship and social work, Cut One School One Youth Crime Intervention addresses the at-risk factors that divert students from their education goals. Under Michael's leadership, the organization has established contracts with high schools across Memphis and is expanding partnerships with local churches and schools. Looking ahead, Michael aims to grow barbering industry in new directions, creating sustainable revenue streams and career pathways for youth in more communities.
